NAOKO STOOP

One Saturday morning, Remy decided to make breakfast for his family us. He made muffins! First, he mixed up the lemon poppyseed muffins and set the oven for 425°. He realized there would not be enough muffins for all of us. So, he said, "Help!" I came in and helped him problem solve. We decided to make more with blueberry mix because they both had the same oven temperature. Last, he baked the muffins and they →

One snowy day the kids, Jeremy and I went out to play. First, we got on our sleds to zoom down the snowy hill, but Jeremy wanted to video us. So, he got on a sled backwards on his belly! I asked, "Are you sure?" He said, "Yes." Then we took off down the hill while he held the phone to video with one hand and the front of a sled with the other hand. I said, "Be careful!" Last, we reached the bottom while laughing our heads off.
