Partial Year Exemptions

Tennessee statute requires that the evaluation process shall not apply to teachers who are employed under contracts of duration of one hundred twenty (120) days per school year or less or who are not employed full-time.

Acceptable Reasons for Partial Year Exemptions

- Educators with contracts of duration of 120 days or less
- Educators who have been on extended leave and have not met the minimum 121 day requirement
- Educators who have transferred to a different school during the year
- Educators who have transferred to another role during the year (Ex. Became an administrator at the semester)

Unacceptable Reasons for Partial Year Exemptions Partial year exemptions due to the following reasons should be considered as below proficient evidence in the Evaluation indicator of the administrator's observation score.

- Educators with incomplete evaluation scores due to incomplete observations
- Educators with incomplete evaluation scores due to lack of achievement data entry

By entering this PIN, I signify that any score override has been verified for accuracy and that the educator has been notified of any changes to his or her record. I understand that changes to component scores may result in a change to an educator's level of effectiveness (LOE) for a given year. The district assumes responsibility for all resulting impacts from this edit and can provide proof of these scores upon request.

TNCompass

Description	Through a partnership with RANDA Solutions, the department developed and launched TNCompass, an educator talent management system that securely collects, stores, and displays evaluation, licensure, preparation, discipline, experience, and compensation data for all educators in Tennessee. This user-friendly platform, in place since 2015, integrates and supports the work of multiple divisions within the department and the state board of education while consistently earning high satisfaction ratings from district and school-level stakeholders. To set up or access an account, please visit http://doe.tncompass.org. Please note that TNCompass only supports evaluation models that are approved by the State Board of Education in policy 5.201.
