OVERVIEW OF THE SELECTION PROCESS

School- and District-Level Selection

To participate in the Tennessee Teacher of the Year process, you will first need to be selected as your school and/or district Teacher of the Year representative. Each school and district selects their Teacher of the Year representatives through a unique process. If you are interested in learning more about your local process, please contact your principal or district instructional supervisor.

Each district is eligible to nominate three educators to participate in the region-level selection process with one educator representing each of the three grade bands: Pre-K & Elementary, Middle, and High.

Final district nominations were due on December 23.

Answer in the Chat:

True or False – You must be nominated at the district level to submit a state-level application.

Answer in the Chat:

True- You must be nominated at the district level to submit a state-level application

Region-Level Selection

After you have been nominated at the district-level, you must complete the part I application by Feb. 3, 2025, to continue to the region-level selection process. The part I application can be found on the Tennessee Teacher of the Year website, and in a direct email sent to you by the Tennessee Teacher of the Year coordinator.

DESCRIPTION: The part I application contains basic information about yourself and your school, 3 written response questions, and an optional opportunity to submit up to 3 pages of supporting documentation.

SCORING: After all applications are submitted by Feb. 3, regional scoring committees will identify one region-level semi-finalists in each of the three grade bands for each of the nine regions for a total of 27 region-level semi-finalists across the state. All region-level applicants will be notified of their application decision by April 1, 2025.

Grand Division-Level Selection

If you are selected as a region-level semi-finalist, the Tennessee Teacher of the Year coordinator will provide the part II application to you via email by April 1.

Part II applications must be submitted by May 12.

DESCRIPTION: The part II application contains:

- two new written response questions,
- an opportunity to submit additional supporting documentation,
- a professional resume,
- three letters of recommendation,
- a professional biography
- a video response , and
- a professional headshot.

SCORING: The entire part II application will be scored by a statewide scoring committee who will identify one finalist in each region of the state for a total of nine region-level finalists.

All applicants will be notified of their application decision in June 2025.

State-Level Selection

The nine region-level finalists will then complete an interview. The interview will be held virtually via Teams.

DESCRIPTION: During the interview, finalists will be asked several questions regarding their professional growth, teaching philosophy, and achievements. Additionally, finalists will be asked to share a prepared, two-minute speech on a topic given in advance of the interview.

SCORING: A statewide scoring committee will utilize both the application and interview components to identify one educator to represent each of the East, Middle, and West Grand Divisions as well as one educator to represent the entire state as the Tennessee Teacher of the Year.
